Jessie was taken sick and Chas. wrote me (Minnie) & asked me to come to Shoshone to be with them. Later brought Jess back to Co. Bluffs. Chas came in a short time & moved into their own home in Co Bluffs. Later they moved to Hastings Nebr. & then came back to live in Omaha. Chas was an invalid for about two years. — died May 1944. Jessie lives on in same house for many years. Later she went to live in P.E.O Home at Beatrice Nebr.

Wilt thou love her still
When her changeful eyes
Have grown dim with sorrow's rain,
When the bosom that beats
Against thine own
Throbs slow with the weight of pain,
When her silvery laugh rings out no more,
And vanished her youthful charms?
I will love her still,
With right good will —
Thou wilt love her still?
Then our darlings take Unto thy sheltering arms.

Nelle married C. M. Oberhelzer (Clarence) 9/5/1907 - Honeymooned in New York, came back to C. B. & lived with Dad - Chet & me (Name) for a time. Dad (W.H.) went to Burley, Idaho and bought a bank and Nelle went out to be cashier. Later Dad & my Burley - had a house just across from School House - Nelle & Ob were next door. Their daughter Ellen Marie at about 4 years old had polio - left one leg paralyzed - several operations - but still lame. She has sweetest disposition - taught School Later a gift shop - in Burley (Later back to Hastings or Burley) not married. Their Son Dick - married Peggie Mulhouse whom he met at U. of Idaho. She was from Boise - Both served in Navy - Ob main occupation Life Insurance. - Have daughter Polly Marie and son - Dick Ivan

The next year Richard went to Tabor College at Tabor Iowa. He took an office and had it in our home. There was no one in Glenwood then I remember, but a number of students came to our home for a good deal. Richard took piano and had a very promising beginning. Father & Mother moved to Council Bluffs, Iowa in 1886. Father was elected to track and assist Superintendent in the office. One day Dr. Stephen Mayo came over to see him & told him that he had been from a Mr. Lindley of Nebraska who wanted a number timber and he was willing to pay for the Presbyterian church at Neola. He went & found a man named Lindley, he got a team of 18 engines. He came home to Neola & noticed this 3 girls who had been attending Drake University (Drake Hall) who were going home for Spring vacation. Jim Hall was returning to Mayo & Hyde girls. Jim had a pretty time. When they reached Neola - Mr. Lindley met Father then took him to meet the Misses Dover - who were music teachers and to Richard & the choir practice. Then he met Jim Hall. [illegible] Richard attended in Council Bluffs and taught Elder's [illegible]. The Cost family moved to Neola & made my home with her and the next fall the day school closed she was taken sick and I was glad I could be with her during her illness and death Nov 2, 1899.

Billy Rightly had a jewelry store and did very well in the jewelry business in Shenandoah Iowa. Sold store in 1918 & bought [illegible] Day had a brick house and he enjoyed the front porch. Jan & [illegible] made a few trips to visit Elizabeth - who she married Earl Cox. They had one son Jonathan. He attended Military School was graduated with honors. Later he attended Massachusetts and finished there in Law.

Jessie & Nell took up stenography & were successful in that field. Jessie married Charles Everett Wortham April 22, 1907. They went to Shoshone Wyoming to live - Charles bought a cattle ranch & Jessie fixed it up so nice. Their father went out there to live with them as their Mother passed away a year earlier.

where James had married and they had 7 children – Libby died when she was a baby – Emma – George – Addie – Walter – John – Maggie. Uncle David had a son Arthur and daughter Grace. Margaret had one daughter Hattie. Uncle Sam had two boys Charles and Billy and two daughters Lillian & Daisy – one day Arthur & Grace came over on horseback and me (Richie & I) were out playing. We crawled under the house – Mama saw us & told us to go into the house and told us to knit it Rounds on some stockings. Richie hurried & finished hers but I had dropped a stitch and could not pick it up; so Richie helped me so we could go out to play again, but we didn't crawl under the house again. There was a little school house about a mile from our home and we walked to school. Teacher was Miss Bird.

In 1874 Uncle James & Family – and our family (our mother & father) moved to Farragut Iowa. They bought farms about one mile apart. There was a school house on our farm. Both Uncle James & Father built nice large houses & big barns. Grandma was born only a few days after they moved into the new home. Nov-21-1878. Nellie came March 15. 1880 – and Chester May 7-1886.

That year Richie and I went to Knox College – Galesburg Illinois. There were 2 boys Lee Greedy – Ralph Chapin & Mary Greedy, Addie Dickey and Richie & me (Mary E). We girls lived in the dorm and the college boys came there for meals. The dining room was large and about twenty sat at a table and we took turns acting as host & hostess and we were to see that all were served. We danced before and after dinner in the long halls. There were 8 long windows in our room. Richie & I did not like the curtains, so we bought new material and made new curtains & put them up. A Lady came to call on us and wanted to know if we were Ellen Follett's daughter. She had been Ellen's music teacher. She complimented us on the way we kept our room. My eyes gave out and Ed (Mr.) came & took me home. The Fr. was a school of Art. when he went there to school.

He took part – in all the battles & campaigns in which his Co. was engaged. He is spoken of on page 18 of the General History of the 33rd Ill. Vol. Volunteer Infantry as a "stanch, reliable "Pot of Chickamauga" kind of a soldier" – His most notable campaign of his Co. was the Vicksburg Campaign.

After war he resumed his business of farming in Henry Co. Ill. In 1874 he moved to Cambridge Ill. for the benefit of Esther & for his children. In 1882 – he went to North Dakota to take up claim (Sellers) but several successive crop failures made it best for him to return to his Illinois farm – where he lived till he did age compelled him to retire in 1904. – He moved to Atkinson & lived there until 1906 when his health & that of his wife Hortense made it necessary for them to give up housekeeping. Marriage has in it less of beauty, but more of safety than the single life. It hath not more ease, but less danger. It is more merry and more sad. It is fuller of passion and fuller of joy. It lies under more burdens, but is supported by all the strength of love and charity, and those burdens are delightful. Marriage is the mother of the world, and preserves kingdoms, and fills cities, and churches, and Heaven itself.

Captain John Fallett — Born in England — Married — Maria Hyatt — Buried at Fort Henry N.Y. Aug 11-1895

Son Abram Hyatt Fallett — married Loraine Everest Meacham. Born Feb 24/1807 in Poultney Vermont — Pittstown Rensselaer Co. Born Feb/1808 — Deceased 1/26/12 Cornwall Henry Co. Ill

John Fallett was a Colonel of New York Militia in War 1812 When the appeal came for reinforcements for the expected Battle of Plattsburg N.Y. he and his men marched for that place but the distance from Pittstown was too great and they did not reach there in time. John Fallett & his wife Mary Hyatt had other sons besides Abram, but no record of them available. One presumably William Fallett. Joe Fallett was a son of one of these sons and lived in the So. Two sons of another son, were Fletcher Fallett of Bradford, Penn. and Melville Fallett of Olean N. York. The latter had no children.

Obituary.

Mr. Samuel A. Dickey was born in Oxford, Pa., August 18, 1802, and died in Kewanee, Ill., June 11, 1892, at 10:22 a. m., aged 89 years, 9 months and 23 days.

For over three years he has been in failing health, from the infirmities of old age, and during the last years he has been very feeble and helpless, requiring constant care, and while afflicted with no apparent disease, yet his suffering at times seemed to give him great distress. And so the weary months have worn his life away untill life was a mere flickering flame, when he gently fell asleep and entered into his eternal rest.

There is now out of a large family only two surviving him, an older sister and younger brother.

While quite a young man he came west and settled in Louisville, Ky., and was there married to Miss Elizabeth Cooper. From this union five children were born, consisting of four sons and one daughter, the elder, James J., residing in Farragut, Ia., David T. on a farm in Cornwall township, Mrs. Maggie J. Benedict in Kewanee, William C. in Council Bluffs, Ia., and Samuel H., the youngest, in Kewanee, most of whom were permitted to be present in his last moments, and all attended the funeral services. He moved with his family to Henry county, Illinois, Cornwall township, in 1855, on a farm, and after twenty years residence there, came to Kewanee, where he has made his home until he was called to his home above.

Presbyterian church in early life, and has been a consistent member ever since, and a liberal supporter in all church work wherever he has resided, and as long as he was able seldom failed to attend the regular church services. He was a man of a very quiet, retiring disposition, but had a strong conviction, and in his quiet way clung tenaciously to what he regarded as right. In religion he was a man of strong faith, and through all his affliction when the mind was clear he maintained a happy, abiding trust in his Savior, and a patient resignation to His will. Those who knew him best before the affliction of recent years remember him as a kind husband, affectionate father, faithful friend and worthy citizen, and above all the devoted servant of Christ, who could say with Paul: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness." He has left a precious record for his bereaved family and an inspiration for all, that the longest life may be best spent in the service of Him who loved us and gave himself for us.

The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, Monday, June 13, at 10:30 a. m., Rev. J. Moore taking for his subject Psalm cxvi. 15, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." The choir sang "The Home Over There," "There's a Light in the Valley," and "Waiting and Watching for Me." Miss J. Linnie Moore also sang "That Beautiful Land," music by Mark M. Jones. The morning was calm and beautiful, and as Mr. Dickey loved music and flowers it seemed very appropriate that the day of his last attendance at the church should be the day after Children's Day—a fitting interlude to his happier day on high. Many of his old pioneer friends were present and bore him away to Pleasant View cemetery, where they laid him to rest by the side of his wife, who had preceded him July 16, 1887.

Council Bluffs department in the Bee of Tuesday, says: Mrs. Ellen M. Dickey, wife of W. C. Dickey, died yesterday at her home, 400 Benton street, aged 56 years. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. S. Barnes of the First Presbyterian church and interment will be in the Walnut Hill cemetery. [illegible] cemeter

Deceased is the mother of Mrs. L. F. Holtz of this city, and of Miss Dicke who formerly taught in the schools [illegible] Wayne.

Mr. W. C. Dickey, who, with his interesting family have been associated with the Second Church, though retaining their membership in the First Church, has been closely confined to his home during the past month with illness. We are glad to know of his improvement and to see him out once more. The unity in the Dickey home is so complete that when one member suffers, all are deeply concerned.

Knocked From a Car.

Mr. W. C. Dickey left a small station near Topeka, Kan., yesterday with a bunch of cattle, arriving in Omaha this morning over the Missouri Pacific. His cars were transferred to the Union Pacific and were brought to this side of the river just before noon. At the junction switch the conductor in charge of the train informed Mr. Dickey that he intended leaving the caboose near the first yard switch, and he had better go with his cattle. Mr. Dickey left the caboose and ran ahead catching the stirrup and started to ascend the ladder at the side of the train. When about half way to the top of the car, which was moving slowly, he was struck by a switch target and thrown to the ground with terrible force. He was picked up in an insensible condition, but soon revived, and was conveyed to his home at the corner of Seventh avenue and Eighth street where Dr. Lacey attended him, he having received a fracture of the accident. Upon examination it was found that several ribs were broken, and that he had sustained internal injuries. A GLOBE reporter called at the residence this afternoon, where he found Mr. Dickey suffering intensely.

EPISCOPAL PRAYER BOOK.

A. H. Follett of Atkinson died Saturday of old age and ailments incident thereto. He was 88 years old and his good wife, with whom he had lived over 65 years, survives him, though in feeble health.

Mr. Follett had resided in Atkinson since along in the '60s, prior to which time he lived in Galesburg. From the latter town he used to haul grain to Chicago in a one-horse wagon.

Mr. Follett leaves two sons—John, a farmer residing near Atkinson, and Charles H., formerly city clerk of this city, but now of Chicago; and one daughter, Mrs. E. M. Dickey, wife of a Council Bluffs banker. There were two other daughters, Mrs. E. J. Everett, sr., who died at Atkinson nearly two years ago, and Mrs. Benedict of Morrison, who died a good many years ago.

E. J. Everett, the Western Union operator here, who is a grandson of the deceased, went to Atkinson in company of Monday to attend the funeral, which took place at 1 o'clock.

Jesus was called and his disciples to the marriage.

Emmanuel ⊙ God with us.

Mr. Charles C. Follett died Friday in Chicago of heart failure. The tidings of his death brought sadness to the hearts of his brother John M. Follett and other relatives and many friends in Atkinson. Mr. Follett served in the war of the Rebellion as a member of Company A, 42d Illinois Infantry. He was wounded at Chickamauga, the result of which was a stiff knee. Out of the service he went to Moline and was employed as drug clerk for the firm of Morris & Gram, later succeeding the Keator Blowe drug store. While in Moline he held numerous positions of trust, discharging every duty with the faithfulness that characterized the man. He was postoffice clerk, city clerk from 1881 to 1885, marshal, etc. About twenty years ago he removed to Chicago, where he has been identified with many important business and social affairs. The remains were taken to Moline where services were conducted by Kinkaid Post, G. A. R., of which order Mr. Follett was an honored member. The relatives here attended the funeral.

Dickey History as written by Mary E Dickey

William Cooper Dickey and wife Martha Ellen parents of Mary E Dickey

"I presume I may not have all facts correct, as I am writing this from having heard Father (Wm) and his family tell about these experiences when they came from Edinburgh Scotland. There were several brothers and sisters and their families. They settled in and near Pittsburgh, Pa.

Our Grandfather, Samuel was born Mar Aug 18, 1802. When he was quite a young man he married and they had one son John, his wife died and he sent the boy to his mother's family in the East. Grandfather lost track of John and never saw him again, nor news of him.

Grandfather (Samuel) and his brother Davis decided they wanted to go West, so they outfitted 2 covered wagons and put their belongings in Started across country. They had one mule and one ox in teams. David drove the oxen. When they reached Lawrence Kansas David was trying to ford a river and his wagon overturned and he was drowned. His wife - 4 sons & 1 girl decided to locate there, but Grandfather (Sam) went on to Louisville Kentucky. He opened up an implement factory. He married again and had four sons - James - David - Wm Samuel and one daughter Margaret.

Again he had of some good farm land in Illinois, so he started on another overland trip. This time Uncle James drove one team, and as it was getting dark & cold he sent Uncle James on to the house & told him to put up the stove, so grandma could have dinner ready when they arrived, but she found the cooking dishes were in the other wagon and when Grandpa did not come she sent Uncle James back to see what was the trouble. Grandpa's (Samuel) wagon was stuck in a ditch and he could not pull it out, so were glad for the help of second team. They settled there about 18 miles from Kewanee Illinois. Uncle James & Uncle Dave bought farms not far from Grandpa (Samuel) later Father (Wm) & Uncle Sam and Aunt Mary Who had married Albert Benedict bought farms nearby too.

One day - there was a picnic near where the folks lived Father (Wm) went to there met Ellen Fallett (our mother). He said she was so pretty with her pink cheeks and sparkling blue eyes. He fell in love right away. They were married and settled near Grandpa (Samuel)

"James William Willcox was one of Ethan Allen's guides; obtaining the scow on which he took his men across Lake Champlain and captured Fort Ticonderoga." (Mr. Willcox adds:) "As a six-year old lad I often heard my grandfather's account of that capture. He said he heard Allen's reply to Lieut. Delaplace's inquiry, 'By what authority do you demand my surrender?'— 'In the name of God'Almighty and the Continental Congress!' was Allen's answer; not what is usually given in the histories."

Henry Willcox's family emigrated to Illinois, in October, 1836,---a six-week's journey from Vermont—settling at Galesburg.

In the family bible of William Meacham is found the following statement regarding the family: They came from the West of England, near Bristol. Two brothers—James & Jeremiah—came over with either Gov. Wentworth, Dudley or Saltonstall, between 1630 or 1642, from the County of Somerset. They were non-conformists. The two officers he met after the Battle of Plattsburg said the name was still ancient and honorable in Southampton.
